

I strongly oppose the FCC's proposed amendments to weaken enforcement of the broadcast indecency law and urge you to please consider the ramifications this will have on our families as well as our society at large. I feel it would be irresponsible for the FCC to drop its current standards given the gross leniency that is already allowed within this market. Please do not conform to the ways of this world. Instead, take heart and protect our children. Thank you.